1. It is reported that in addition to the arrests of Sreten Zujovic and Andrija Hebrang, more than 80 senior Yugoslav Army officers, including about 11 generals have also been arrested. The names of those arrested are unknown, but it is rumored that Yugoslav former Chief of Staff Koca Popovic is one of them.
2. Rumors of a schism in the higher ranks of the Yugoslav Communist Party have been circulating since the dismissals of Zujovic and Hebrang. One of the Vice Presidents of the Serbian Presidium is reported to have attempted suicide on 19 May and is now in a hospital under guard. There is other evidence (unstated) which tends to confirm that a high level purge of the Party and the government has, in fact, begun.

Comment: Bosin Zimic and Ljuba Leontic, Yugoslav representatives in London and Ankara respectively, have recently been recalled by their government.)
